

SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT FOR ADMISSIONS FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022 - 2023

Deadline: 3rd October 2022

The Collegio Universitario Luigi Lucchini di Brescia is a modern hall of residence, recognized by the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research as a “University College of Merit”.

It is a centre of excellence for the training of university students, who will be admitted after a careful selection process based on merit and motivation.

With a specific cultural program complementary to their academic training, together with the experience of community life in college, the residents will be able to develop and improve their personal, intellectual and professional skills.

It is supported and managed by a Foundation established for this purpose and its founder members are the Università degli Studi di Brescia and Fondazione Lucchini.

Each year students sign up for their individual training and cultural Project, choosing from the Program the activities they will follow according to their personal interest and skills, in agreement with the Collegio Management.

PLACES BY SELECTION

For the academic year 2022 – 2023, the Foundation Collegio Universitario di Brescia is offering 6 places for male and female students.

The places are allocated on the result of a selection process as follows.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students from Italy and other countries may apply for admission. Applications are welcome from those who:

- intend to enroll for the academic year 2022-23 in a first-year degree course at the Università degli Studi di Brescia, having passed the school leaving exam (e.g. maturità, A levels) with a mark of 80/100 or equivalent;
- are currently students at the Università degli Studi di Brescia on a degree course (laurea triennale, ciclo unico or magistrale) and, at the time of application have all their curriculum and exams up-to-date, as stipulated in their study plan. Their average mark must be 27/30¹ (approximately) or more.

ADMISSION FORMS AND DEADLINES

The first announcement for admissions closes at 12 p.m. (midday) on October 3rd, 2022.

Candidates intending to apply must:

1. fill in the online personal information sheet (preliminary enrolment form);
2. fill in the admission form which can be downloaded from www.collegiodibrescia.it;
3. attach the following documents to the form:

¹ Please contact the Secretary for any further information regarding the Course you are attending.

A	For candidates who are not yet enrolled for a university course, a copy of the school leaving exam certificate (maturità, A levels etc..) or official document issued by the High School where the exam was taken.
B	For candidates already enrolled at university (degree course), a copy of a certificate from the university registrar's office (Esse3) showing the up-to-date results of all exams taken, with the overall average mark of 27 or more. For graduate candidates, a copy of the degree certificate/diploma with final evaluation.
C	If the candidate has a scholarship, he/she must indicate this on the admission form and attach documents indicating the student's economic situation (and/or economic situation of the student's family). It is also possible to send these documents on your arrival at the college.
D	A self-presentation letter (about 300 words) in which the candidate must give reasons for wanting to apply to the Collegio, her/his personal contribute to the life of the Collegio and future ambition.
E	A medical certificate stating you are in good health and do not have any health problems which could be incompatible with life in a student community.

Candidates must fill in, sign and send the downloaded admission form plus the required documents:

- by email to the address info@collegiounibs.it (if by chance the candidates does not receive an email reply from the College, they should get in touch with the Secretary);
- by hand to the Secretary's office (via Valotti 3c/d, Brescia). You must phone for an appointment.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

The Admissions Board is made up of the College Principal and 3 other members. It decides on the procedures and times for the selection.

The tests will take place at the Collegio Universitario Luigi Lucchini (via Valotti 3c/d, Brescia) on October 4th, 2022.

If it is not possible to do the test in person, it could take place online; please contact the Secretary for any further information.

An email will be sent to the candidate confirming the exact date and time of the tests.

The test will be in 2 parts:

- a) Oral test on General Knowledge, aimed at understanding the candidate's basic, general knowledge, his/her ability of expression and her/his cultural and scientific interests.
- b) Interview to understand the candidate's personality and motivations, aimed at getting to know the candidate and to understand his/her attitude to living in a community, to find out his/her motivations for studying and his/her willingness to participate in the Collegio's training activities.

HOW THE CLASSIFICATION TABLE IS FORMED

The final classification is the sum of all the marks in the oral tests plus the points awarded from the applicant's curriculum and academic record.

x/20	Curriculum and academic record
x/15	Oral test on General Knowledge
x/15	Interview to understand the candidate's personality and motivations
x/50	Final result

Candidates with a mark of 35/50 and above will be considered suitable.

They will be admitted to the Collegio in order of classification until all available places are filled.

Candidates will be notified of the result by e-mail (at their address given).

ANNUAL RE-ADMISSION

The admission is for the academic year 2022-23. Re-admission to the Collegio will be renewed annually, in compliance with:

- merit and academic results;
- attendance at the activities of the training and cultural Project of the Collegio;
- the respect of all the Rules and regulations.

ACCEPTANCE

Candidates will be sent the results by e-mail.

Once the place has been accepted, candidates must adhere to the admission's Rules and regulations.
